

Slaughter Announces $160,300 in Subsidies for Rochester Affordable Housing Program

Susan B. Anthony Apartments Will Benefit 35 Low-Income Families

Washington, DC - Rep. Louise M. Slaughter (D-Fairport), Ranking Member of the House Rules Committee, is pleased to announce that the Susan B. Anthony Apartments program has received $160,300 in federal subsidies to complete its rehabilitation of a 35-unit apartment building in Rochester.

"Programs like the Susan B. Anthony Apartments assist needy families in the most important way possible - by helping to be self-sufficient and to take control of their future," Rep. Slaughter said. "And by investing in their dreams, we are truly investing in our community. I hope that that the tremendously valuable work of this organization continues to be recognized and supported."

Low-income families, including 11 formerly homeless families, will benefit from the renovations. The complex also contains laundry units, a playground, a school/community center, and after school programs. The main goal of the program is to help previously needy families meet become financially independent.

The funding was supplied by the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York. Additional financing will be provided by the City of Rochester HOME funds, Monroe County lead-based paint abatement funds and the Community Preservation Corporation.
